

Samuel Siavoshi

Associate / Riverside and Los Angeles workers' compensation defense attorney

An associate attorney in the SMS Riverside office, Mr. Siavoshi has an extensive background in multiple areas of law including applicant's work in Workers' Compensation, and business and civil litigation including shareholder, partnership and contract disputes. He served his country as an attorney obtaining the rank of Captain/Major Select in the United States Air Force where he was awarded Junior Attorney of the year for two consecutive years at the Space and Missiles Center in Los Angeles.

Professional History

- Experience in workers' compensation defense
- Applicant's attorney work at a prestigious applicant's firm in Southern California
- Civil litigation attorney advising cities, local agencies, and counties on real estate actions
- Business litigation attorney addressing real estate, partnership, and fraud issues
- Experience in management, sales contracts, and lease agreements
- USAF General Counsel, handling a large contract portfolio and experience with Air Force felony prosecutions

California Practice Specialties

- Defense of Workers' Compensation claims
- Government representation in the areas of aviation, medical, criminal and civil legal issues
- City, county, local agency real estate transactions

Education

- J.D. - University of San Diego School of Law
- B.A. - University of California, Irvine

Professional Memberships

- California Bar Association
- Junior Attorney of the Year, Space and Missiles Center, Los Angeles - USAF, Judge Advocate General Corp.
- California Real Estate license (No. 02080182)
- The Crest Homeowners Association Board Member