

Kevin Wells

Los Angeles office, Workers' Compensation defense

An Associate attorney in the Los Angeles office, Mr. Wells has aggressively represented clients in Workers' Compensation matters for over 20 years. He is familiar with applicant attorney's in multiple venues from Los Angeles, Orange County, Inland Empire and San Diego.

Professional History

- Provides a complete defense for all employers including S&W and 132a claims.
- Prior work history with firms in San Diego and Orange County.
- Prior work experience with CIGA claims/litigation.
- Promotional speaker on benefits of Higher Education to inner city and disadvantaged communities.
- Prior President of Black Law Students Association.
- Law clerk experience in areas of business litigation including securities and real estate, criminal defense and personal injury.

California Practice Specialties

- Defense of all aspects of Workers' Compensation claims including 132(a) and S&W matters

Education

- J.D. – California Western School of Law (1999)
- B.A in Communication – Arizona State University (1995)

Professional Memberships

- California Bar Association