

Aaron Moreno

Los Angeles and Southern California workers' compensation defense attorney

With an emphasis on aggressive and progressive handling of claims from outset to trial, as well as practical risk-assessment at every step of litigation, Aaron Moreno, Esq. keeps a constant eye on settlement value.

Professional History

- Approximately 25 trials/arbitrations to decision.
- General/special and PEO litigation.
- Well-versed in lien litigation and negotiation through trial.
- Extensive experience on litigation of coverage issues under Labor Code 5412.
- Experience litigating for against CIGA claims.
- County of Los Angeles claims, including sworn police officers, firefighters, as well as municipality claims.
- High exposure claims, death claims, 100% PD claims with vocational rehabilitation as well as arbitration on coverage.
- Extensive work at all Southern California Boards, with appearances and experience throughout California at large.

Education

- J.D. – Pepperdine University School of Law, Malibu, California (2009)
- B.A. Political Science – California State University, San Bernardino, San Bernardino, California

Professional Memberships

- California Bar Association

California Practice Specialties

- Defense of Worker's Compensation claims