

Ying Wang, Esq

Associate Attorney / California Workers' Compensation Attorney

Ying Wang is a dedicated legal attorney with extensive experience in workers' compensation, mediation, and arbitration. She has a strong background in legal research, negotiation, and advocacy, and is proficient in both English and Chinese. Ying is committed to providing exceptional legal services and achieving favorable outcomes for her clients.

Professional History

- Represented clients in workers' compensation hearings, mandatory settlement conferences, status conferences, and lien conferences.
- Drafted and responded to pleadings and discovery requests, ensuring timely submission in compliance with procedural rules.
- Advised clients on claims resolution, risk management strategies, and compliance with state workers' compensation laws.
- Conducted detailed legal research and analysis to support case strategies and prepare comprehensive case evaluations.
- Negotiated settlements, achieving favorable outcomes for clients.
- Provided legal guidance and support on a wide range of corporate and commercial matters, including contract negotiation, employment law, intellectual property, and regulatory compliance.
- Conducted mediation sessions for parties involved in various legal disputes, including civil, family, and workplace conflicts, facilitating constructive communication and negotiation between parties.

Education

- LL.M. – Pepperdine University School of Law, Malibu, CA
 - Dispute Resolution
- LL.B. – Southwest University of Political Science and Law, Chongqing, China

Professional Memberships

- California Bar Association
- New York Bar Association

Certifications

- Wiley W. Manuel Certificate for Pro Bono Legal Services

Languages

- Fluent in English and Chinese