

James Konrad

California Workers' Compensation Defense Attorney

With experience in litigation, contract drafting, negotiation, and creditor rights representation, Mr. Konrad brings to Siegel, Moreno & Stettler a practical legal background focused on advocacy, analysis, and resolution-oriented representation.

Professional History

- Represented creditor clients in court trials and pre- and post-judgment hearings, with responsibility for case review, settlement negotiation, motion drafting, and legal research.
- Experienced in reviewing, negotiating, and revising commercial agreements, vendor agreements, statements of work, IT agreements, and procurement contracts for technology, infrastructure, equipment, leasing, rental, and maintenance services.
- Has assessed contractual insurance requirements, coordinated with insurance professionals, and supported contract language aligned with risk management and insurance considerations.
- Brings additional discipline and leadership experience from service as a Sergeant in the U.S. Air Force Reserve.

California Practice Specialties

- Defense of Workers' Compensation claims
- Litigation case review, legal research, and motion drafting
- Settlement negotiation and dispute resolution
- Contract analysis, drafting, and negotiation
- Risk management and insurance-related contract review

Education

- J.D. – University of Maryland School of Law, Baltimore
- Undergraduate Studies in Political Science – California State University, East Bay

Professional Memberships

- State Bar of California
- Associate in Risk Management (ARM)
- Associate in Insurance (AINS)