

Suneet K. Shrivastava

California Subrogation Attorney

Accomplished workers' compensation defense attorney with nearly two decades of experience, dedicated to client satisfaction. Demonstrates exceptional leadership and management abilities as a Partner with Siegel, Moreno & Stettler, Mr. Shrivastava boasts a consistent track record of success.

Professional History

- Developed and implemented strategic approaches to defend employers and insurance carriers.
- Provided expert legal advice and representation in complex litigation cases.
- Fostered and preserved strong client relationships through effective communication practices.
- Conducted legal research and negotiated settlements to achieve favorable outcomes for clients.
- Co-managed team of attorney's specializing in workers' compensation.
- Mentored junior associates and contributed to their professional development.
- Maintained client-focused approach in all aspects of defense.
- Mentored new associates on all aspects of file handling with a specific emphasis on file resolution and exceeding client expectations.

Education

- J.D. – University of San Francisco, San Francisco, California (2005)
- B.A in Criminology, Law & Society – University of California, Irvine, Irvine, California (2002)

Professional Memberships

- California State Bar Association